Our last day of Term 1 was a lot of fun, shared by students and their families, community friends, and staff. Thanks to those of you who joined us to reaffirm our commitment to meeting the needs of our students. It was a rocky start to this term but we are enthused by the willing attitudes of our students. It’s great to see them all eager for more learning.

P&C MEETING: Today’s meeting has been postponed until next Thursday, May 30th. Please come along to support the work of this hard-working group.

ANZAC OBSERVANCE: Staff and students will observe ANZAC Day in an assembly tomorrow morning. The School will be marching in the Singleton event on Saturday, and students from our School will have a role in commemorating the sacrifices of many Australians.

HOMEWORK and STEPHANIE ALEXANDER KITCHEN GARDEN PROGRAM: Notes went home on Tuesday detailing responses you need to make about these aspects of our teaching and learning program. Please read them carefully and discuss your responses with your children.

By necessity, this is a shortened version of our weekly Newsletter. We didn’t go unscathed: our technology was down until mid-morning today. However, I would like to welcome three new students to our school: Noah and Matilda, and Charlie. We’re happy to have you and your families as part of our school community.

SPOTLIGHT ON P&C

P&C Canteen Co-ordinator Cherona Mullane has met with healthy Kids NSW to give our canteen menu a shake up. The new menu offers much healthier options and more variety for our kids each week. We have tried keeping prices as low as possible for parents so children can enjoy the weekly canteen our P&C offers. It is more important now with the fresh healthy options that all orders are in on Tuesday to allow Cherona to have the goodies for the Friday. The new menu and prices will be reviewed at May P&C meeting. All are invited to attend.

Enviro-mentors... The Sustainability Educator from Keep NSW Beautiful will be presenting sessions about composting, waste reduction and care of the environment on Wednesday, April 29th. All students will be participating.
